4. B. Haggin's Handsome Colt the Pick for the Rich Race at Morris Park To-day A Big Field and Much Speculation as to the Result -Juvenile Stakes Feature

Morris Park, America's greatest racecourse Morris Park, America's greatest racecourse, will be a magnet to-day. Thousands of men and women who love the thoroughbred will journey to Westchester to see the running of the rich Metropolitan Handicap, the Juvenile Stakes, the New York Steeplechase and three other interesting events. Society will be out in force; there will be music, fluttering flags, green lawns and beautiful scenery as in years gone by. Aqueduct was but a curtain raiser of what is to come at Morris Park. Two-year-olds who have reputations to make and magnificent stakes to win will make their first appearances in public. Older horses of world-wide renown will also measure strides for turf prizes of munificent value.

In the official list of entries sent out last night there were named twenty-four starters for the Metropolitan. Of this number probable eight or ten will be scratched, which will leave even then, a big field for C. J. Fitz-geruld to send away. Ever since the weights be a magnet to-day. Thousands of men women who love the thoroughbred will even then, a big field for C. J. Fitz announced speculation has been rife to the winner of this event, which by the a mile and the horses have been working h: Watercolor, who is the handsomest roughbred in training, has been privately thoroughbred in training, has been privately trained down at Long Branch or rather Monmouth Park by Charles Littefield, Jr., and is said to be in superb condition. No very good line on his real form has been obtained, hower, except the information that he is usually a early horse and will go to the post fit ever, except the information that he is usually an early horse and will go to the post fit. Watercolor will carry top weight, 12d pounds, and will be ridden by Wonderly, Air Haggin's $15,000 jockey.

Outside of Watercolor, the public has several other choices who are sure to carry loads of gold to the post. L. V. Bell's Alcedo, winner of the Suburban Handicap last year in record time for that event, is in with 122 pounds, but it was rumored last night that the horse would be among the scratches today. J. G. Follansbee's four-year-old colt Bochampton, by Bathampton—Agnes Flash, with 116 pounds, has been so well thought of that he will undoubtedly receive a world of backing. Mr. Follansbee, it is said, believes that Rochampton will be returned the winner massnuch as he has worked in fine style, has shown all of his old speed and is in better trin than ever before. As a three-year-old, Lochampton won a string of good races from excellent fields and at one time was considered to be in the same class with Water-color, Blues, Gold Heels and others who rated at the top.

Clarence H. Mackay has three representa-sidered to be in the same class with Watercolor, Blues, Gold Heels and others who rated at the top.

Clarence H. Mackay has three representatives, Heno, His Eminence and Kamara.
Much is expected of Heno, who last year
sorred a magnificent victory in the Matron
Stakes by defenting the Futurity winner, Yankee. Heno has rapidly developed since then and is at least 200 pounds heavier, so Trainer Hill says.

Frank Farreil's entries are Bonnibert and Col. Padden, (Tom Welsh has trained them both and believes that Col. Padden, with P4 pounds, has a good outside chance.
W. C. Rollins's Herbert and William Barrick's McMeekin, if they start and are right, will be dangerous factors,
it is thought Herbert was a high-class handicap horse last year, being in the money in both the Brooklyn and the Suburban, and later on beating some of the best fields of the year. J. E. Widener's Ten Candles has been prepared carefully by William Lakeland at Brighton Beach.

The Juvenile, which is the first really important two-year-old stake of the year, will bring out a high-class lot of youngsters.

The conditions, starters, weights, owners, probable lockeys and betting for the Metropolitan Handicap, are as follows.

The Metropolitan Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, by subscription of $100 ceach, half fortet, of only $10 if declared March 20; with $7,500 added, of which $1,500 to the second and $750 to the

Turf Notes.

Lexington, May?—Two of the most valuable mares at the Castleton stud of James R. Keene have dropped brown filles: Imp. Lactitia, dam of Chaoornac, who won the Futurity in 1886, and the St. Simon mare imp. Midred. Both foals are by Kingston. The noted race mare Amelia dropped a bay colt by imp. Topgallant at the Oakwood stud of C. P. McMeekin. Esther Cleveland, by imp. Deceiver at the same farm, foaled a bay filly by the record holder Goodrich. Lafy Jack, by Hayden Edwards, at the Melbourne stud of W. S. Barnes, has dropped a chestnut filly by Prince of Monaco, H. P. Headley's Futurity candidate, the highly tried Oronto, by Ornament—Imp. Judith, in a trial race here to-day with the two-year-old colt, Sailor's Dream by imp. Pitate of Penzance—The Dreamer, ranthree-eighths of a mile in 3612 seconds with 122 pounds up.

A shake-up in Columbia's first and second Varsity crews took place yesterday without varsity crews took place yesterday without any warning. Herbert R. Odell, '03, son of Gov Odell; Frank Snyder, '02, and L. Landers, '02, were all put in the first boat, and Bradley, Falconer and A. D. Weekes were not on hand. Falconer and A. D. Weekes were not on hand. It is not thought that the changes are permanent. The conditions in the second boat are different and the revised make-up is probably the final combination for the race. William R. Morley, the football player, has retired from the crew, and Rudolph von Bernuth, who has been tried at Falconer's place in the first boat, was put back in the second crew, at No. 6. Morley's place at 4 was given to R. A. Nicholl, a medical student, who has been rowing at 6. Richard S. Smith, another football man, was moved from 7 to 5, and Gerald S. O'Loughlin, who rowed on the '03 freshman crew at Poughkeepse, was put in at 7 instead of at 5, where he formerly rowed. Barent Lefferts, the stroke oar, William F. Rollins, Jarvis P. Carter and William F. Allen, bow men, will be allowed to retain their sents for a week at least. The coxswain will be R R Leenning R Ellsworth, stroke of the first freshman boat, has been delegated to 4 in the second crew and R Atkins succeeds him in the first boat.

Bean Enjoined From Playing with New York Club.

ROCHESTER, May 2 Lawyer Horace McGuire obtained a temporary injunction from Judge Sutherland, in county court this afternoon, restraining Joe Bean, shortstop for the New York team, from playing any longer with that team. The injunction can be corralled anywhere in the metropolis can be corralled anywhere in the metropolis. In getting the injunction Lawyer Metiurs asserted that Bean played with Rochester in 1901 and signed for 1902 at $200 a month, but broke this contract to sign one with Freedman.

While secrecy has been observed in getting the injunction, it has been understood all along that some such move was contemplated. It has been intimated that Freedman is adverse to having any litigation over the star shortstop and would prefer to settle the matter out of the court or even order Bean back to Rochester.

GREAT SCORING BY TRAVIS.

HE PLAYS IN RECORD FIGURES AT GARDEN CITY.

Final Rounds at Thirty-six Holes and a Big Handleap To-day - Moller, Jr., to Play the Amateur Champton Percy Pyne. 2d, Does Wonderful Putting.

Splendid scoring by Travis and some close finishes in matches in which he did not take part were features at the Garden City Golf Club tournament yesterday, when match play was on in four cop events simultaneously The final rounds, each at thirty-six holes, will be played to-day, and there will be also an eighteen-hole handicap. The Presi-dent's plate final will be between Travis and Moller, the Garden City cup, for the eight beaten in the first round for the President's plate, will be between Reinhardt and Paul Murphy of St. Paul's School, who beat Poole 2 up after having been 5 down at the turn: Stillman and Baker are the finalists for the club cup and Taylor and Murphey for the Hotel cup.

There was a crowd to follow Travis and Pyne, Mr. and Mrs. Manice going the full round. The amateur champion was in his best vein and no golfing could have been better, for, although Pyne went out in 38, Travis was 2 up at the ninth. To this green he had needed but 36 strokes, the score he made when he completed the round in 78, he had needed but 26 strokes, the score he made when he completed the round in 73, which is the record for the links. Travis slopped at the fourteenth, the match being won by 6 up and 4 to play, he then being only a stroke over an even run of fours. It was marvellous good going, for every stroke was played out, but Pyne did not hole out on the first and seventh greens. Pyne had to play the odd after the tee shots every time. Travis took two puts on every green except the third, where he needed three, and the fourth, where he laid his approach quite close up. He took exactly twenty-eight puts for the fourteen holes, getting fine fours in succession. Pyne needed but one put on the second, third, fourth and fourteenth greens, each time scoring from a long and apparently hopeless distance, but on four greens he missed easy opportunities to halve, but his total number of puts, twenty-eight, was the same as Travis. The cards were:

Moller furnished a surprise by beating Wilson, the Princeton captain, but the result was justified by the accurate long game of the Apawamis amateur. The cards were: Travis went out in 39 in the morning with Mallouf, the boy from St. Paul's School, defeating him by 5 up and 4 to play. The cards make plain again how hard the amateur championship was to beat yesterday. They read cock. Jr., and Wilson, the former saving the half by a 2 on the home green, but finally losing. Reinhardt won his two matches in very good style in the play for the Garden City cup, but Murphy and Poole carried their match to the home green. The St. Paul's boy had been flye down and when he won from Poole there were loud cheers from his schoolboy friends. The match between Stillman and Baker to-day will be interesting for both are on their game, and Murphey and Taylor will also put up a vigorous match. The latter's win from Lynch was in the nature of an upset, but Taylor's game was very even and he deserved the success. The summaries follow:

President's Plate, Second Round—Walter J. Travis, Garden City, beat N. Mellouf, St. Paul's School, by 5 up and 4 to play. Preve Pyne, 2d, Pfinceton, beat N. S. Campbell, Yale, by 4 up and 3 to play; H. I. Wilson, Pfinceton, beat C. Hitchcock, Jr., Yale, by 1 up 20 holes); John Moller, Jr., Apawamis, beat F. J. O. Maon, Pfinceton, beat C.
